Gender Equality in Coaching

3rd Newsletter

April 2025

Welcome to the third issue of the SheCOACH Newsletter

As we continue our mission to promote gender equality in sports coaching, we are pleased to share highlights from the SheCOACH Partner Meeting in Murcia, Spain, along with details on the ongoing pilot testing of the SheCOACH e-learning platform, which is set to be completed by the end of April 2025.

We are also excited to launch a new section on our website's News' page: "Perspectives & Voices".

This section will feature interviews with basketball coaches, primarily women, who will share their experiences, insights, and recommendations on breaking stereotypes and empowering women in basketball coaching.

Join our team!

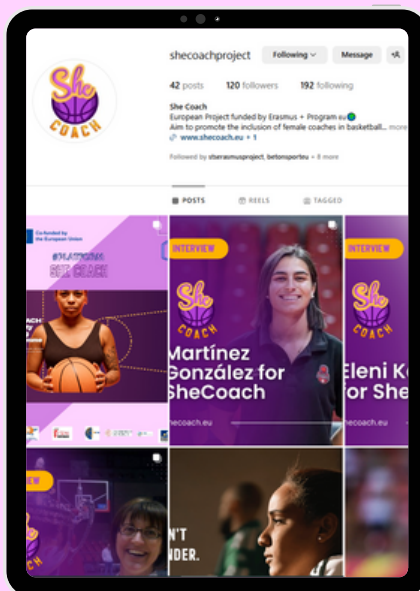

We welcome stakeholders from sports federations, clubs, coaching associations, educational institutions, policymakers and people who love sports to join our efforts!

SHECOACH PARTNERS MEETING

IN MURCIA, SPAIN

The SheCOACH consortium gathered in Murcia, Spain, on January 16–17, 2025, hosted by the University of Murcia.

This strategic meeting provided an opportunity for partners to review the project's achievements and outline the next crucial steps:

- Finalizing and refining the SheCOACH e-learning platform
- Planning the upcoming pilot testing phase in Cyprus, Greece, Italy, and Spain
- Establishing a clear framework for integrating gender equality into coaching education.

The Murcia meeting reinforced the consortium's dedication to eliminating barriers for women in coaching, with special attention given to traditionally male-dominated sports.
